GREAT WEEKLY

Difficult Digestion

That is dyspepsia. It makes life miserable. Its sufferers eat not because they want to, but simply because they must. They know they are irritable and fretful; but they cannot be otherwise. They complain of a bad taste in the mouth, a tenderness at the pit of the stomach, an uneasy feeling of puffiness, flatulence, heartburn and what not. The effective remedy, proved by permanent cures of thousands of severe cases, is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is the best cathartic.

A X mark shows that your time is up, and unless you renew at once you may not get the paper next week.

Five Cents a Bushel will be paid to mine 500 to 1500 bushels of coal. Apply at this office at once.

Richard Hord, of Lexington, was again interviewing our merchants on Tuesday.

TO BE CURED of rheumatism, with all its lameness, aches and pains, take Hood's Sarsaparilla. You must be sure to GET HOOD'S.

Mrs. Alice Pieratt and children spent an enjoyable Sunday at the home of E. F. Cecil and wife, on Grassy.

Miss Callie Wills, of Toliver, has the thanks of the editor and his better-served-eighths for a basket of very fine sweet potatoes.

For Constipation
Take Lyon's Laxative Syrup; an ideal remedy for children and adults, as it is pleasant to take and perfectly harmless under all circumstances. Price 25c. Sold by J. C. Stamper, Grassy Creek.

F. A. Ward, Upper Long Branch, Morgan county, will have a sale of his personal effects, including live stock, crop, etc., on Saturday, the 18th inst. For particulars see bills.

Our friend, ex-Sheriff Thrasher Combs, was here a little while on Tuesday shaking hands with friends, en route to Quicksand, where he is engaged in a big logging contract.

THE HERALD and Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal is only $1.25 for 12 months; with Weekly Enquirer for same time $1.35. And now is the time to subscribe.

Sam Wilson has just finished one of J. T. Day's houses, occupied by J. T. Goveidon, the man of music. The body is a fawn color trimmed with white. Sam wants to hear from others soon.

Rev. James M. Little, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, of this place, requests us to announce that he will preach here on the third Sunday in this month; services at 11 o'clock a. m., and everybody is cordially invited.

Will Pres Taulbee, of Johnson Fork, visited his brother W. Riley Taulbee Monday, and reported that George Stacey's store, near him in Magoffin county, was burned a few nights since, and was a total loss, as he had no insurance.

Charley Buchanan, the shoe smith, requests to announce that he will have finished his farming operations by the end of the week, and that hereafter he may be found in his shop every week day, fully prepared to make boots and shoes in the most artistic style, or to repair old work in a substantial and satisfactory manner.

The funeral of Mrs. Jas. Wheatley, Mrs. Wm. Clark, Old Uncle Billy Clark and Mrs. J. T. Stamper will be preached at Toliver Church on the second Sunday in October, at 10 o'clock a. m. Revs. Wm. Cord, Wm. Tyler, and others will conduct the services, and according to time-honored custom of the only "Jim Tom" Pieratt, there will be "dinner on the ground."

On Monday last Mrs. A. C. Nickell celebrated the 28th anniversary of her birth by setting a dinner, to which a few especially chosen friends were invited, each of whom presented her with a souvenir of their esteem. A quilting bee was also a feature of the occasion, all the ladies present taking part. It was an enjoyable affair in every particular, and all the guests expressed the hope that the hostess might live to enjoy many, many more just such happy events.

Keep It in Your Home, and when the bowels fail to act properly, take a dose of LYON'S LAXATIVE SYRUP. It acts gently but effectually on the kidneys, liver and bowels; will keep your system in good working order and make your complexion clear.

Churches of Christ.

At the Annual Meeting held with the congregation at White Oak, in Morgan county, Sept. 19-22, some things were done looking towards the advancement of the cause of Christ in the West Liberty District. There was a feeling manifested that more permanent work should be done; and in order to secure a more systematic and methodical work the Annual Meeting elected an Executive Board of five members to take the evangelization of the district under its immediate care. The members of this board for the ensuing year are W. C. Nickell, Secretary, W. W. McGuire, R. C. Maxey, W. G. Blair, and Judge Carter, Chairman. The headquarters of this board will be at West Liberty. They will meet once each month.

It was also determined to hold a "delegate meeting" for "business" only on Friday before the 3rd Sunday in August, at West Liberty, and the "Old Annual" for preaching only, at Spaus' Creek, beginning on Friday before the 3rd Sunday in September. This was certainly a move in the right direction, and we look for much good to come from this especially missionary business meeting of delegates from each of the congregations in the district. It is in keeping with all successful organized missionary work.

W. C. Nickell, of Index, is Chairman of the "delegate meeting," and Thomas Lykins, of Spaus' Creek, is the Secretary.

The Executive Board will soon issue and make known their plans for the ensuing year, and it is hoped that every congregation and each member in every congregation will put forth an effort to co-operate with them that the Divine Plea may be preached throughout the district as never before.

W. H. CORB, Retiring Chairman West Liberty District.

A Wedding and Wedding Feast.

Married, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Roe Nickell, of our town, on Thursday, Sept. 25th, Nick Bailey and Miss Eliza Nickell. The bride is a very distant relative of mine host, where the ceremony was performed, and an orphan girl, both her parents being dead. The groom is a young widower with three children, but a prosperous young farmer of Morgan county. Mr. Nickell and wife, F. M. Long and wife, Oscar Fallen and wife, and perhaps others of the good citizens of Dickville, for the nonce formed a trust by pooling their dinner-pots and honored the bridal couple with a dinner worthy the occasion, after which the "two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one," left for their home on Tom's Branch.

"Eaten Bread Soon Forgotten."

About the time melons began to come into the local market one of our friends promised us that in consideration of a notice we printed about a sale he had made to give us the largest melon he raised. Later we noticed some cracker-jacks, said to have been grown by him, but each time consoled ourself with the idea that he had still a larger one in reserve for us. But the season being now about over, we conclude that it is just another illustration that "eaten bread is soon forgotten."

Another Lie Nailed.

The opponents of Hon. Frank Hopkins are trying to make it appear that at some time in the past he failed to support the local Democratic ticket, or part of it. Those who are in a position to know say that he has no truck in the charge. All who know Mr. Hopkins know that he has at all times done his best to secure the triumph of Democratic principles and candidates.

Winchester Democrat.

PAYS HIS RESPECTS

To Mr. Wilson, and "Proves That He is Somewhat of a Liar Himself."

SIDELL, ILLS., Sept. 27. Spencer Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky. Dear Mr. Cooper: If you will allow me space in your dear paper for a few lines I will tell you about how much potatoes, corn and oats was raised in this part of the state this year, as I see where some of the Kentucky boys are writing back what an abundance of corn, oats and taters grew in Missouri this year.

Well, Mr. Cooper, I wouldn't be surprised if Mr. Andrew Wilson didn't stretch his blanket a little when he was writing to you about what potatoes he was digging for his aunt.

Well, I don't intend to tell anything but the facts. The first I will tell about is our oats. Oats blown down so that all of them could not be saved, but enough was secured to make 80 or 90 bushels per acre, and corn is so big that I have been hauling it on the running gear of a wagon to feed hogs. And as to potatoes they grew so big that we had to take off a panel of fence to get them out of the garden. We have been eating on one potato ever since oats harvest and haven't eaten over half of it yet.

I think Mr. Andrew Wilson will not write any more about his aunt's taters after this. Believe me, Mr. Cooper, if you want to. If you don't come and see.

As sure as Monday night comes 'round, I to the postoffice go;
In search of mail within the box,
For a paper's there I know,
'Tis one I always love to read,
The best within this world;
Because it brings me news from home,
The dear old HAZEL GREEN HERALD.
I remain, as ever, your friend,

Celebrate Their Silver Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Swango, near town, on Sunday celebrated their silver wedding, Sept. 28th being the 25th anniversary of their marriage, and the numerous presents received by them on that occasion, including silver plated knives and forks, etc., etc., attested the esteem in which they are held by a host of friends. The event also called for a dinner par excellence, which was partaken of by a few particular friends, who were especially invited, and they say the table literally groaned under its weight of good things. All present enjoyed the feast, and each one expressed the wish that mine host and hostess might live to celebrate their golden and diamond weddings, respectively.

Public Speaking.

Hon. Frank A. Hopkins, Democratic candidate for Congress, will speak at the following times and places:

Pomeroyton, Thursday, Oct. 2. Frenchburg, Friday, Oct. 3. Mt. Sterling, Saturday, Oct. 4. Mr. J. G. White is invited to be present, and is tendered a division of time.

Speaking will begin at 1 p. m. at each place except Maytown, where it will be at 6 o'clock p. m.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, Joe Lykins and wife, near Hazel Green, on Friday, Sept. 26th, 1902, Hallick Patrick, of West Liberty, to Miss Molly Lykins. Rev. G. M. Center tied the nuptial knot, immediately after which the happy young couple left for their future home at West Liberty.

We gladly note that the eyesight of Miss Myrtle Davis is improving to a wonderful extent. She is the guest of Judge Swango, who takes her from his home near Mt. Sterling, into town to see Dr. Reynolds daily, and his treatment has nearly completely restored her sight.

Hon. Frank Hopkins addressed a good sized and, eminently respectable audience here Wednesday, in which he arraigned the trusts in all their arrogant avarice, and pointed to the fact that they are fostered by the Republican party.

EDITORIAL EFFUSIONS.

THE PARTISAN.

There is a wide difference of opinion as to who is a partisan. Some imagine a partisan is one who invariably votes a certain ticket with a certain party. This idea is palpably fallacious and erroneous on its face. If a man always and invariably votes a certain ticket, never crossing or scratching, because he believes in the principles of the party that ticket represents, that man is a patriot and not a partisan. On the other hand, if a man votes with a certain party and does not believe in the principles advocated by that party, he is a partisan—not only a partisan, but a fool, a traitor, and unworthy to wear the name of an American citizen. He who votes for party sake and not for the sake of principle, is more dangerous to the safety of American institutions than the notorious public vote seller. Catch the idea: A partisan is one who votes with a party and does not believe in the principles advocated by that party.

ANYBODY, not drunk on insanity, admits that we have better times under Republican administrations than under Democratic administrations. Yet some are so strong in the faith that they will vote Democratic if it results in the erection of a starvation soup-house on every street corner of the land. Such of such ilk should have to go half-fed and half-clothed till their political hulks are softened a bit.

WE HAD the blessings of "low prices" under Cleveland's administration. Horny-handed sons of toil, how did you like it? Do you want a return of those blessings? If so, vote the Democratic ticket, and you are sure to get them?

LOCAL LACONICS.

The wife of Judge J. W. Congleton is on the sick list.

Mumps is raging in the family of A. F. Byrd. Quite a swell affair.

Dorsey Lovelace, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lovelace, of Stillwater, died on the 25th inst. of flux.

A. B. Cox, of Boxer, the defeated candidate in the hard-fought race for matrimony, was in town Saturday and Sunday, the guest of Judge J. W. Congleton.

The Methodist Quarterly Meeting was conducted at this place Saturday and Sunday by Rev. C. F. Oney, the Presiding Elder. Rev. Oney was the guest of A. F. Byrd while here, and helped to destroy chickens to a finish.

County Clerk Tutt reports the following marriage license issued since Sept. 18th: James Lindon and Iola Childers; N. W. Bailey and Eliza Nickell; Bruce Rose and Kate Chambers; G. Taylor and Rosa Lee Turner; Frank Alexander and Martha Collier; Samuel R. Cotterill and Maggie E. Bradley.

Dr. J. H. Stamper reports the following: Mrs. Laura Horton is very ill of flux; Rev. G. W. Hardean's baby, who has been near death's door of catarrhal fever, is convalescent; Sept. 25th, born to the wife of ex-Sheriff A. T. Combs, a fine Democratic girl; Sept. 27th, born to the wife of John Shepherd, a strenuous, Rooseveltian Rough Rider.

Hon. Green Garrett, of Winchester, was here last week on business. He handed ye "rampant" editor one dollar for THE HERALD one year. He complimented the CAMPTON COURIER very highly, and advised its editor to "pour it into the Democrats hot and heavy." Mr. Garrett's family were guests of the Combs House several weeks last summer, and got struck on Campton.

Hon. H. F. Pieratt, the artful Democratic politician of Hazel Green, was in town Saturday shaking hands with the noble one-galused boys. While here he made a special hunt for THE HERALD to read the "Editorial Effusions" in CAMPTON COURIER. Pieratt is a cracker-jack, and the bossless Democrat that beats him for the Democratic nomination for Representative will have accomplished a feat hitherto undreamed of.

T. F. Stamper, I. R. Hollon and W. E. White, composing the Board of Election Commissioners, met Saturday and appointed the following officers for the coming November election:

First District.—D. H. Lindon, D. and Howard Little, R. Judges; J. R. Carroll, D., Clerk; John T. Graham, R., Sheriff.

Second District.—D. B. Center, D., and A. C. Nickell, R. Judges; W. P. Lacy, R., Clerk; J. B. Davis, D., Sheriff.

Died, on Sept. 25th, Dorsey, the little son of G. W. Lovelace and wife, of flux.

Miss Lula Combs, of Campton, was the guest of Miss Delia Collier Sunday night.

Sylvester Halsey is confined to his room with a very bad foot, the result of blood poison.

George Byrd and family, of Morgan county, were visiting at the Bridge Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Clara E. Taylor, daughter of W. H. Taylor, comes to the front with a quilt that contains 5000 pieces. Boys, don't all speak at once.

Married, on the 23rd inst., at the residence of the bride's father, W. H. Chambers, of this creek, Bruce Rose to Miss Katie Chambers. The groom is one of Stillwater's brightest young men, while the bride is the eldest daughter of Rev. W. H. Chambers, by a former marriage. Her pathway be entwined with lots of healthy and happy little roses.
